

Silver Bullet Productions presents ACTIONS MATTER

Moderated by Julie Mason
Panelists: Bill Richardson & Sam Donaldson

Introduced by Mayor Javier Gonzales, each distinguished guest knows that ACTIONS MATTER. Each will reveal the power of ACTIONS in community, nation, and world choices. There are no small actions; each has consequences, good and bad.

Julie Mason is the host of Sirius XM Radio's Press Pool, has 30 years of experience covering state and national politics, including four presidential campaigns. She was White House reporter at POLITICO, the Washington Examiner and the Houston Chronicle. Julie was former elected board member of the White House Correspondents Association and recipient of the Gracie Award from Alliance for Women in Media for outstanding achievement as a radio talk show host.

With more than 30 years of government experience, Bill Richardson is a frequent network news contributor for Meet the Press and This Week with George Stephanopoulos. He has served as U. S. Ambassador to the United Nations from 1997-2000 and Governor of New Mexico from 2003-2010. Bill was Energy Secretary during the Clinton administration. In 2008 he sought the Democratic nomination for President. He's been nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize four times.

A former reporter and news anchor serving with ABC News from 1967 through 2013, Sam Donaldson is best known as the network's White House Correspondent (1977-89 and 1998-99.) He has covered every presidential election during that time beginning in 1964. Sam was a panelist and later co-anchor of the network's Sunday program, This Week. He also anchored the ABC Sunday Evening News from its inception in 1979 until August 1989.
